Communiqué de presse, Cannes #1

Cine-Regio money supports 22 films at Cannes Film Festival 2011

22 films supported by members of Cine-Regio are selected in the official & sidebar sections of this year Cannes festival Programme. This means that 22 films are connected and have a relation to the European regions.

This fulfils the aim of Cine-Regio which is to strengthen the identity of the European regions through film as a medium of cultural unifying body and it is therefore noted with great satisfaction that this year 22 films are accredited to the Festival de Cannes.

Charlotte Appelgren, General Secretary of Cine-Regio: “It is a highly interesting programme that Festival De Cannes this year has composed and it is also wonderful news that so many films in the Cannes selected sections have Cine-Regio money involved. For Cine-Regio, the members of Cine-Regio and the citizens in our regions, it is very encouraging and a great strength that money is put into films that offers a high artistic value, explores new talents and stands for cinematic innovation.”
