Communiqué de presse #1, Cannes, 18th May 2015

CineRegio celebrates 10 years of being the European umbrella for cultural diversity. This year 27 feature films selected for Festival de Cannes is supported by one or more CineRegio members - 5 in main competition. In total during the last 5 years more than 125 films selected for Festival de Cannes have been supported by CineRegio members.

This year, CineRegio celebrates 10 years of being the European umbrella for cultural diversity. On its anniversary, to be celebrated on Monday 18th May during Cannes Film Festival, CineRegio is proud to announce that in the last 5 years more than 125 films selected in the official & sidebar sections of Cannes Film Festival Programme have received support from one ore more CineRegio members. This means more than 125 culturally diverse films were produced by CineRegio’s umbrella and have a relation to the European regions.

This year, CineRegio members supported 27 feature films and 4 short films selected for Cannes Film Festival Official Selection & sidebar sections. Out of all the European Films selected, CineRegio members have supported 35%. In Main Competition, CineRegio supported 5 films (38% of all European Films in Main Competition).

Philippe Reynaert, Chairman of CineRegio: “This result reflects our objectives and states the importance of the work of CineRegio that acts as a lobby and network organisation encouraging cross-border and interregional co-operation and co-productions. For CineRegio, the members of CineRegio and the citizens in our regions, it is very encouraging and a great strength that money is put into films that offer a high artistic value, explore new talents and stand for cinematic innovation.”

CineRegio is a non-profit association of regional film funds in Europe. The network counts 43 regional film funds from 14 European countries – and together the members represent a total funding capital of €168 million.
